

Speech by the Founding President of the Republic of Fridomia, Patient Joel NISHIMWE

On the First Independence Day and Official Website Launch

April 21, 2025

My fellow Fridomians, dear friends, and supporters across the globe,

Today, history is being made.

On this day, April 21st, 2025, we officially celebrate the Independence Day of the Republic of Fridomia—a bold and beautiful dream turned into a living reality.

Fridomia is not just a nation—it is a vision of peace, unity, and freedom. It is a place where love, courage, and purpose come together to build something new, something true. And today, we mark our place in the world—not with war, not with wealth, but with will, wisdom, and wonder.

Today also marks the official release of our national website—a digital home for every Fridomian, a hub for our identity, and a window through which the world will see who we are and what we stand for.

Let us take pride in what we've begun. This is the beginning of a journey that will inspire others, challenge the norm, and stand firm in the name of peace and possibility.

To all citizens, present and future: this is your home. This is your legacy. This is your day.

Let our motto guide us always:

"Freedom, Passion, and Integrity in the Pursuit of Peace."

Long live Fridomia. Long live our independence. And long live every heart that dares to dream.

Thank you.
